

OUTLINE OF PROCEDURE FOR GRADUATING EXERCISES
(Revised 1933)

Each Dean will recommend graduates from his College as follows:

"Candidates ~~from the College of Arts and Sciences~~ from the College of ~~Arts and Sciences~~ please arise."

Commence

(After they stand)

"Mr. President: These candidates have successfully completed the work prescribed by Brigham Young University for graduation with the baccalaureate degree. I, therefore, ~~in behalf of the College of Arts and Sciences~~ recommend that they have conferred upon them the degree of Bachelor of Arts or Bachelor of Science as indicated on the program."

Commence

(Candidates remain standing)

Candidates from other colleges are recommended by the respective deans in the same manner.

After all are standing, the University confers the degrees.

(Candidates will be seated)

Stand

The deans will then call up their respective groups to receive their diplomas.

"Graduates from the College of ~~Arts and Sciences~~, please arise and come forward."

Commence

The graduates come forward single file. The one on lead stops before the Dean while his name is read by the Dean. He then advances and receives a diploma from the President of the Board. He then goes to the other side of the stage and down to his seat.

Appended: List of the F. C. C. C.
